FIVE POINT SOMEONE

“FUNNY yet touching...........pacey, informal style of storytelling.....FPS is a book version of Dil Chahta Hai” – Financial Express

Five reasons why Hari, Ryan and Alok’s lives are a complete mess:

1. They’ve messed up their grades big time.
2. Alok & Ryan cant stop bickering with each other.
3. Hari is smitten with Neha who happens to be Prof. Cherian’s daughter.
4. As IITians, they’re expected to conquer the world, something they know isn’t likely to happen.
5. They’re with each other.

Five point someone by bestselling author Chetan Bhagat. This is not a book that will teach you how to get into IIT or survive it. In fact, it describes how bad things can get of you don’t think straight. Funny, dark and non-stop, five point someone is a story of three friends whose measly five-point something GPA’s come in the way of everything-their friendship, their love life, their future.

Questions

1. Did you like the book? (Yes/No) Why?
   Ans: Yes I like this book because it teaches us what to do in IIT.

2. Which characters you liked most? Why?
Ans: The character which I liked the most is Chetan Bhagat because he lives very systematically in IIT college.

Conclusion: Everyone should read this book as it teaches us many things that will help us to lead our life.
